Sky's the Limit announces another in its series of “Discovery Days” to jumpstart Lunar Week – the first week of April.

We are inviting the public to join us in celebrating “Lunar Adventures” on Saturday March 31, 2012 from 6 to 8 pm.

The free event will be held at the Observatory and Nature Center on Utah Trail just north of the entrance to Joshua Tree National Park.

Pre-dark activities include:

Moon/Earth Machine

Eido Phone

Lunar Lore

After dark activities are:

Astronomical instruments and views of the moon

Moon week kickoff.

Come join us. We will have cookies and hot chocolate. Everyone is encouraged to bring their own water bottles, folding chairs and appropriate dress for the weather as most activities will be outside.

Lunar Adventures is limited to 60 participants and children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult.

Registration is free at the 29 Palms Park and Recreation office at 74362 Joe Davis Road next to the skateboard park. Call 760 367-7562 for more information.
