

SKYS THE LIMIT HELPS OUT CINDERELLA'S CLOSET AT TPHS

Many high school girls cannot afford to buy a dress for prom. For the fourth year, students at the Twentynine Palms High School hosted a Cinderella's Closet. Through April 29, girls visiting The Closet were able choose and keep a gently used special occasion dress free of charge. Cinderella's Closet will open again in the Fall before Homecoming.

When she heard this announcement, SKY'S THE LIMIT THRIFT Shop Manager Candy Jones boxed up a number of elegant dresses, including a bridal gown and veil, to deliver to TPHS. Many of the garments were new, donated to the Thrift Shop when a local boutique had to close. Photos show Ashley, Amber, Brianna, and Mrs. Wilson looking over donated gowns.

Residents can support this effort by donating dresses, shoes, and accessories to Cinderella's Closet in Mrs. Robin Wilson's room at Twentynine Palms High School. For more information contact Mrs. Wilso at Robin.Wilson@morongo.k12.ca.us.

SKY'S THE LIMIT THRIFT SHOP is open Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, 10 am to 2 pm through May 29, when it will close for the summer and re-open in October. The Thrift Shop is located at 73656 Homestead Drive, one block west of Adobe Road, at the north end of the Historic Plaza in Twentynine Palms. Candy Jones may be reached at 760-819-9371.
